

Subscribe Now
Current Issue
Digital Edition

San Diego Magazine / August 2012 / San Diego's Best Pools

San Diego's Best Pools

Step into our swimming pool fantasy

BY KIMBERLY CUNNINGHAM

Published: 2012.08.08 12:22 PM

(page 3 of 5)

Photos by Priddy Smith

To find the perfect shade of ocean blue, the design team tested more than 20 different tile colors, creating mockups and submersing the samples in water at various times of day. (Tile by Lightstreams in San Francisco)

Infinite Tranquility

La Jolla

Details

10,000 gallons

6 feet deep

Glass-tile bottom

Rim-flow edge

The house is owned by former San Diego Padre Chris Young, who is 6'10" tall. The designers made the spa 10 inches deeper than usual to accommodate his height. The jets are laid out specifically for therapeutic purposes.

The owners chose patio furniture by the ultra-high-end McKinnon and Harris. The aluminum powder-coated frames are designed to withstand all types of weather.

Added bonus: The spa doubles as a fountain when not in use.

Owned by Chris and Liz Young

Designed by Skip Phillips at Questar Pools

Built by Keith Lowry at Verdant Custom Outdoors

Most Popular

San Diego's Best Restaurants 2018

Dig into the 260 winners defining San Diego's food scene in 2018

San Diego's Best Restaurant of 2018: The Finalists

San Diego Magazine's Best Restaurants issue comes out in June. Here are food critic Troy Johnson's finalists for the best of the best.

Good Night, Cafe Chloe

San Diego's beloved French bistro is closing due to California's unfair labor laws

Pacific Gate: Downtown Living at its Finest

Bosa Development brings Super Prime luxury to Downtown San Diego

5 Hot San Diego Pools That Are Open to the Public

Where to go for lounging, sipping, dipping, or attending a grown-up pool party

Stop Killing Chloes

How California is very knowingly killing the mom and pop restaurant

Promotions

Vote Now for Your Orangetheory Winner!

Winners will be announced at our Sweat event on May 12

Not Your Grandma's Orthotics

New year, new – shoe? Staying on your feet for long hours at a time just got a whole lot more comfortable with Wiivv's BASE custom insoles

Connect With Us:

Tweets by @SanDiegoMag